The Annual LUAS Holiday Gathering- Saturday December 13, 4:00 PM at the Nightengale Archaeological Center

Bring your self, a friend, a goodie to share, and join us as we celebrate the passing year and look forward to the next.

Note:

There will be no meeting and no field trip in either December or January.

November, 2008 Field Trip—Results

A hearty (and hardy) group of members braved blustery conditions and explored portions of LCRA's Muleshoe Bend Park. "It was beautiful and a great day to be out in the countryside with friends".

Minutes, November, 2008 Meeting Al Priest, Secretary

7:04 Pat calls the business meeting to order

LUAS agrees to fund the purchase of artifact bags for the curation of Graham Applegate artifacts and future projects.

The Nov. 15 field trip is to a nearby LCRA park where a prehistoric American Indian campsite is eroding out of the recently exposed lake shore.

Dec. 13 is the annual LUAS Christmas party at the Nightengale Center. The party starts at 4:30. Bring finger food, deserts and your Christmas spirit!

7:30 end of business meeting

7:31 Priscilla Murr gives a very interesting talk on the nature and cultural history of the Hornsby Bend area in Austin.

Don't forget, membership dues are due soon. Remain a member of LUAS and show your support for the cultural history of central Texas!

Steward's News

Your local archeological steward is Doris Howard. If you have any questions about the archaeology of the area, she can be your first contact. Doris can be reached at (325) 247-2440

The Llano Uplift Archeological Society was organized by people interested in the protection, conservation and study of historic and prehistoric materials and sites in the Llano Uplift ("Central Mineral Region") area of the Texas Hill Country. Its primary goals include education of the membership, students and the public; and to support other groups, researchers and educators with similar interests. Stewardship of the Nightengale Archaeological Center is a major responsibility of LUAS.
